Alex Restoration - How a Job Flows

SAMPLE ANSWERS - a guide only

This is an example of a filled-in questionnaire. The answers are made up to show you the kind of detail we need. They are not a guess about your shop. Write your own answers in the real questionnaire. Short answers are fine. "Not sure" is fine too.

Tips: write what really happens, not what should happen. Say who by name or role. Give a normal time and a worst case. If a step does not exist at your shop, cross it out. If you have a step we missed, add it.

Each service below shows a flow, then a filled-in table.

5. What goes wrong, and what to send us (sample)

Question	Sample answer
Which step causes the most delays?	Waiting for imported parts on restoration. Sometimes 6 weeks.
Which step causes the most arguments or mix-ups?	Approval. Customers say they never agreed to extra work.
Which service earns you the most, and which gives you the most trouble?	Restoration earns the most. Paint gives the most trouble because of colour complaints.
What would make this system worth it after 30 days?	I can see every car and what it is waiting on without asking around.
How many people will use it, and what phones or tablets do they have?	8 people. Mostly Android phones, one iPad at the front desk.

Photos to send: job card or work order, car inspection sheet, estimate, receipt or invoice, price list or packages, warranty card, and any spreadsheet or notebook where you track jobs.
